

Transamerica Long Horizon - CTF

Investment Style:

Asset Allocation

Investment Objective:

Seeks to provide long-term returns from growth of capital and growth of income.

Investment Strategy:

The fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing, in general, in a mix of collective trusts managed by Transamerica Asset Management, Inc. ("TAM") or by Aegon USA Investment Management LLC ("AUIM"), mutual funds managed by TAM, and a group annuity contract issued by and supported by the Transamerica Life Insurance Company ("TLIC") general account ("Stable Value Option") (collectively, "Underlying Investments"). TAM, AUIM and TLIC are affiliated with the Trustee. During normal market conditions, the fund invests approximately 90% of its assets in stock funds, 4.8% in bond funds, 5% in the Stable Value Option and 0.2% in Money Market funds.

Trustee:

Transamerica Trust Company

Inception Date:

5/14/2010

Ticker Symbol:

Risks:

Asset allocation investments may be subject to all of the risks of the asset classes in which they invest, which may include stocks and bonds as well as other types of investments. The higher the investment's allocation to stocks, the greater the risk. Asset allocation and diversification do not assure or guarantee better performance, cannot eliminate the risk of investment losses, and do not protect against an overall declining market.

Turnover Ratio (%):

66.0

Growth of $100 (Since Inception)

Annualized Returns (%) as of 09/30/24

The collective trust fund ("CTF") is offered through the Transamerica Asset Management, Inc. Collective Investment Trust (the "Trust"), which is sponsored by Transamerica Trust Company ("TTC"), the Trustee of the Trust. The CTF invests a portion of its assets in a Transamerica general account stable value product ("Stable Value Option"). The Stable Value Option is a group annuity contract issued by Transamerica Life Insurance Company ("TLIC"). Transamerica earns income indirectly by including Stable Value in the CTF. The CTF also invests in underlying funds managed by TAM and AUIM, affiliates of TTC, and from which TTC and/or an affiliate receives revenue. The CTF is not a mutual fund and is exempt from registration, therefore, a prospectus is not available. The CTF is not insured by the FDIC, Federal Reserve Bank, nor guaranteed by TTC or any affiliate. TAM, AUIM TLIC and TTC are indirect affiliates of Aegon. For more information about the CTF, including the risks of investing in the CTF, please review the CTF's current Disclosure Memorandum.
